

324 BC

1912 Dates. J-BK

Alexander returned to PERSIS and thence to SUSA.

324 BC

Demosthenes is banished from Greece

Spring of 324 BC +

Alexander went to EC BATANA, and in 324 BC his bosom friend
HEPHAESTION died.

324BC

389-314BC

1912 Dates J-BK

Three speeches "Against TIMARCHUS"
"On the False Embassy" and
"Against CTESIPHON"
by AESCHINES (389-314BC)
Second only to his great rival Demosthenes.

Mar 374 BC

Alexander returned to Susa from the desert. Soon afterward the arrival of some 30,000 Persian noble youths, who, on his order, had been taught Greek and instructed in Macedonian warfare.
He called them the Successors

Spring 324 BC

Alexander held a mass wedding for himself and more than 80 other Macedonian officers to Persian noblewomen. He himself took 2 wives, one a daughter of Darius.

Persia, not Greece, was now his base of operations, and he began plans to conquer Arabia &

perhaps Carthage or Italy

Fall 324B^c

In Ecbatene, Hephaestion, Alexander's companion since boyhood, took ill and died of undetermined causes.

Alexander's grief was extravagant
He crucified Hephaestion's physician Alexander's own health now impaired by a brutal chest wound received in India - one of his many injuries - and he was subject to the mood swings and miserable rages of an alcoholic.

324 BC (July - Aug)

Restoration of exiles proclaimed at Olympic games

113 Olympiads (4 yrs) since 776

End of 324BC

Alexander returned to Babylon where he met embassies from the BRUTTIANS, LUCANIANS and ETRUSCANS (from Italy), the CARTHAGINIANS, CELTS, SCYTHIANS, LIBYANS, and ETHIOPIANS.